Introduction

Doris recalls, 'I was twelve years old at the time, and, back then in 1886, it wasn't the 'done thing' for young ladies to be seen sunbathing or swimming in public. Yet I was daring enough to sneak down to the beach in the evening when I hoped no one was watching.

This particular evening I waded out at low tide to a cluster of large rocks some distance from the shore. It was so lovely reclining on the rocks with the soothing sounds of the water lap-lapping, that I completely lost track of time. They say that time and tide wait for no man - well they didn't wait for me.

By the time that I realised what time it was, the tide had come in and I was stranded out at sea on a large protruding rock. I scanned the beach with straining eyes, hoping to catch a glimpse of some help, but I could see no one. The beach was deserted. And the tide was coming in further!

Suddenly, standing next to me on the rock was a tall man, dressed in a long white coat. He smiled compassionately at me and without speaking, he lifted me into his strong arms and somehow carried me to shore. He stood me gently on my feet on the beach, and when I turned to thank him, he was nowhere to be seen. The beach still appeared to be deserted.

I believe he was an angel!'

Doris Backhouse was an elderly resident of the Chas Harrison Memorial Home in the 1970s when she shared her story with your author. She was convinced that angels exist, for she believed that she had seen and felt one.

Well, what do you believe about angels? I confess that my understanding was a bit hazy until I studied what God's Word had to say about angels. The theological presses are weighed down with what people think, but for purposes of this study I have only pursued what the Bible has to say on the subject.

Read on with me as I recapitulate my study...

The Credibility of Scripture

In order to appreciate the reliability of the source material I have used in researching this subject, I refer you to the Word itself. We are told that 'all scripture given by inspiration for doctrine, reproof, correction and instruction' (2 Timothy 3:16).

This inspiration was not word-for-word verbatim from God, but 'holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit' (2 Peter 1:21). We know that God's word will not pass away (Matt 24:35, 1 Peter 1:25) and that it is true (John 17:17, Revelation 19:9, Psalm 19:7).

God's word is definitely alive and well: 'For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow. And is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart' (Hebrews 4.12).

It is interesting to note that not all 'religious' people believed in angels: Acts 23:8 says, 'For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.'

What Do Angels Look Like?

Truly! the smartest men ought to talk low, lest the angels overhear and laugh at their ignorance. - Living Illustrations By B. Carradine

Well, I don't really know, as the Bible doesn't give a clear-cut description any anyone, including angels. (David was described as 'ruddy, and withal of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to (1 Samuel 16:12), Elisha was bald (2 Kings 2:23), Esther was beautiful (Esther 2:7), and Zacchaeus was short (Luke 19:3). But none of these descriptions are comprehensive. In researching this topic I looked at hundreds of illustrations: prints of paintings, frescos, drawings, word pictures, photos of statues, illustrated manuscripts, and commercial clipart. I saw conceptions from ghastly gargoyles to cute cherubs, from grotesque devils to voluptuous winged maidens, from human-like representations to comic characters. All differed considerably - as different as Cupid is from Lucifer. So what do we know about angels?

The appearance of angels varies. Only angels described as cherubim and seraphim are represented with wings in the visions of Ezekiel ( 1:4-28 ; 10:3-22) and Isaiah (6:2-6).

Angels have the power of speech, are able to appear and disappear, are able to move through walls & doors, and are stronger than lions (Dan 6:22) & prison guards.

Click HERE to return to Contents

Angels are able to be seen when God or they choose to be able to be seen. For example, Numbers 22:31, 'Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way.'

Indeed angels are given certain human attributes: Judges 6:11 'And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak.', Acts 5:8 'And the angel said unto him...', Psalm 78:25 'Man did eat angels' food (referring to the Manna provided in the wilderness) he sent them meat to the full.'

Angels are described as being brilliant to behold: Matthew 28:3 'His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.' And Revelation 10:1, 18:1 'And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire. / And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.'

In the New Testament (though not in the old) angels may sometimes be described as wearing white: John 20:12 'And (Mary saw) two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.'

Some angels carry swords and sheaths: 1 Chronicles 21:27 'And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.'

Certainly they are described as being awesome: Matthew 28:4 '... For fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.', Judges 13:6 'Then the woman came and told her husband (Manoah), saying, A man of God came unto me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible!'

Angels have immortal bodies: Luke 20:36 'Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels.', but can be destroyed by God: Matthew 25:41 '... Everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.'

Angels may come in disguise: Acts 7:30, 35 '... there appeared to (Moses), in the wilderness of mount Sinai, an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush...God (sent Moses) to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.' and Hebrews 13:2 'Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.'

George Eliot well said, 'The golden moments in the stream of life rush past us, and we see nothing but sand; the angels come to visit us, and we only know them when they are gone.

Angels are able to play music. Revelation 8:2 'And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.' (see appendix for comments regarding harps and singing)

They can guide our understanding. Revelation 17:7 'And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery.', 22:6 'And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.' But because there are both good and bad angels, there is a need to test out what they say. Galatians 1:8 cautions, 'But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.'

We are told that angels are greater than mankind: Job 8:5 'For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.', but not as great as Jesus (who by these next verses is shown not to be an angel): Hebrews 1:4,5 :Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. / For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee?'

So what do they really look like? Heaven only knows.

Heavenly Angels

It is as impossible for a man to bestow himself under the limitations of time as it is for a stone to possess the wisdom of an angel. St. Jerome.

What else can the Bible teach us about the angels? There are many around God's throne: Revelation 5:11 ' And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands / Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.'

They agree with God. Galatians 3:19 '...the promise was ... ordained by angels.'

Many of the angels have names, and we are told some of them: Luke 1:19 'And the angel answering said unto him (Zacharias), I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these glad tidings.', Jude 1:9 '... Michael the archangel ...', Revelation 9:11 'And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.'

Interestingly, angels are often called 'Lord'. Acts 10:1-4 'There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, / A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. / He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. / And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.'

One thing which distinguishes Jesus from the angels is that we are told that angels are not to be worshipped: Colossians 2:18 'Let no man beguile you (into the) worshipping of angels.', Revelation 22:8, 9 'And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. / Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.'

Unlike us, the angels can see God face-to-face: Matthew 18:10 '... In heaven (the) angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.'

Assuming he is talking about angels as the morning stars, Job tells us that they sang at creation: 'Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding. / Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it? / Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof; / When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?' (Job 38:4-

7) It is possible that the morning stars simply refer to the heavens as in Isaiah 44:23 and 49:13: 'Sing, O ye heavens...'

The angels were created by God. Psalm 148.2,5 says, 'Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts... Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were created.' and in Colossians 1.16 'For by him (God's dear Son - Vs 13) were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him. In Ezekiel 28:15, God says of Satan, 'Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.'

Jesus not only created the angels, he is the one who has sent the good angels to minister: Matthew 13:41 'The Son of man shall send forth his angels...', and Matthew 13:49 'So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth...'

The angels keep God's holy Sabbath day & obey the Ten Commandments: Psalm 103:20 'Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.'

The angels are unmarried: Matthew 22:30 '... In the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.'

And, like Jesus there is something they don't know! - They don't know when Jesus is coming again: Matthew 24:36 'But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.'

And the heavenly angels have special rôles:

They can carry out or bring special punishment. Acts 12:23 tells us that when Herod blasphemed for the last time, 'the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.'

The earlier verses tell us that the angels can open prison doors: Acts 5:19 'But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought (the apostles) forth...'; Acts 12:5-11 'Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. / And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. / And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. / And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. / And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision. / When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him. / And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the LORD hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.'

Angels, as mentioned earlier, can bring special messages: Acts 7:53 'Who have received the law by the disposition of angels.', Luke 1:11 'And there appeared unto him (Zacharias) an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.', and Revelation 14:6-12 'And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, / Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. / And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. / And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, / The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: / And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. / Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.'

Angels can bring people together for good: Matthew 24:31 'And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.', or they can bring people together for destruction: Matthew 13:39 '... The harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.' (See also Acts 12:21-23 'And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. / And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a God, and not of a man. / And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.')

Guardian Angels

The curfew chimes, the midnight bell;
'Sleep well, my child,' it murmur slow;
'The guardian angels come and go.
O child, sleep well.' - Eugene Field

The expression Guardian Angel does not appear in Scripture. Although translations such as the NIV refer to Satan as a guardian cherub in Ezekiel 28:14, 16 - Hebrew cakak (pronounced saw-kak) meaning to entwine as a screen; by implication to fence in, cover over, and figuratively to protect, to cover, defend, hedge in, join together, or shut up. The New revised Standard does the same and also uses the Greek word episkopos (elsewhere translated as bishop or overseer) in 1 Peter 2:25: 'For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.'

Guardian angels do, however, exist and we understand these guardian angels more by their rôle as protectors — of the church, the nation and the individual.

Church protectors.

Revelation 1:20 '... The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches.' (It is possible in these verses that the writer is referring to the church leaders as 'angels', using a Greek word for 'messenger')

Corporate or national protectors.

Psalm 34:7 'The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.' (I rather like to take this verse personally, though.)

Personal protectors.

Psalm 91:11,12 'For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways./ They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.'

There is a guardian angel for every child of God: Matthew 18:10 'Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.'

Guardian angels can direct us: Acts 12:8 'And the angel said unto him, (Peter)...follow me.', Matthew 2:13 'And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.', Acts 8:26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.'

Thankfully, our guardian angels are concerned for our wellbeing: Luke 12:8,9 'Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: / But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.', Luke 15:10 'Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.'

Messiah & Angels

Every praying Christian will find that there is no Gethsemane without its angel.

- Thomas Binney.

Angels announce the conception,
the birth, the resurrection,
and the Second Coming of Jesus:

It is angels who announce conception of Jesus to Joseph. Matthew 1:20,21
'But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. / And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.'

Angels announce conception of Jesus to Mary: Luke 1:35ff 'And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.... And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end... And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.'

Angels announce the birth of Jesus to shepherds. Luke 2:9-14 'And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. / And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. / For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. / And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. / And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, / Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'

Angels roll away the tombstone and announce the resurrection of Jesus to the two Marys: Matt 28:1-7 `... And, behold, ... the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it./ His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:/ And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. / And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. / He is not here: for he is risen, as he said...'

And the angels announce the future Second Coming of Jesus while explaining the ascension to disciples) Acts1: 9-11 `... this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.'

And the angels announce the actual Second Coming of Jesus with a trumpet blast: 1 Corinthians 15:51,2 'Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, / In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.' And again in 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18: 'For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: / Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. / Wherefore comfort one another with these words.'

And the angels came to be with Jesus:

They came to be with Jesus in wilderness: Matthew 4:11 '... angels came and ministered unto him.'

They came to be with Jesus at Gethsemane: Luke 22:43 'And there ap-

And they will come to be with Jesus at Second Coming: Matthew 16:27 'For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.', 25:31 'When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.'

The evil angel Lucifer tries to tempt Jesus:

Matt 4:1-11 'Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. / And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered. / And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. / But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. / Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, /

And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. / Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. / Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and showeth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; / And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. / Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. / Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.'

Hell's Angels

Psalm 78:49 'He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.' (KJV)

Hell is just another word for the grave. The term Hell's Angels was coined for street usage as the name of a 1970's motorcycle gang and has since come into more general usage to refer to any with evil intent. More specifically, it here refers to Satan and his angels.

First, the bad news about Hell's angels.

The angel Lucifer (Satan), while in a high position in Heaven, rebelled when he became proud. Isaiah 14:12-14 explains, 'How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! / For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: / I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.'

Sin originated with the angel Lucifer, 1 John 3:8 'He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning...'

There was war in heaven and the angel Lucifer and his angel followers were cast out. Revelation 12:7-17 says, 'And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, / And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. / And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.'

The fallen angel Satan is still at war. Matthew 13:39 'The enemy ... is the devil.'

Hell's angels are to be judged, Jude 1:6: 'And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.' And we are to do the judging! 1 Corinthians 6:3 asks, 'Know ye not that we shall judge angels?'

To understand better where evil angels fit into this great picture, it may be helpful to explore the origin of sin.

In the beginning, the world was created sin-free. Genesis 1:31 'And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good.'

Genesis 3:1-6 explains how sin was introduced: ' Now the serpent* was more subtle than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? / And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: / But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die. / And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: / For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. / And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.' (* ...the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth... Revelation 12:9)

We read something of the angel Satan's involvement in Ezekiel 28:14-17: 'Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. / Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee. / By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. / Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness...'

The angel Satan is a liar: John 8:44 '... your father the devil... was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.'

But even though he was cast down from heaven, thereby loosing his glory, the angel Satan is still appears as a brilliant angel: 2 Corinthians 11:14 '...for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. (the word transformed is translated from the Greek word metaschematizo meaning to transfigure or disguise.)

Tragically, the angel Satan stalks about like a roaring lion seeking you and me as his prey (see I Peter 5:8).

All angels are ministering spirits, Psalm 104:4 and also Hebrews 1:7: 'Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire.' And yet the evil angel Satan's ministers appear to be righteous. 2 Corinthians 11:14, 15 'And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. / Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.'

And finally the bad news is that the evil angel Satan is still a warmonger. Revelation 12:17 'And the dragon (Satan) was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. - 2 Thessalonians 2:8-10

HOWEVER!

The Good News about Hell's Angels

Satan will be bound by a chain of circumstances for 100 years, Revelation 20:1-3 'And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. / And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, / And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more...'

And then Angel Satan and his followers will finally be destroyed by a fire which has everlasting consequences: Matthew 25:41 'Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.', Revelation

20:10 'And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are'

A mini-Concordance

Angel/s

Our brains are seventy-year clocks. The Angel of life winds them up once for all, then closes the case, and gives the key into the hand of the Angel of the Resurrection.

Oliver Wendell Holmes.

In order to gain an easy appreciation of what the Bible says about angels, I have here listed all the verses in the Bible that use the words angel (Part A) and angels (part B). There are numerous other verses in the Bible that use different terms when referring to angels or other celestial beings, such as spirit/s, messenger/s, sons of God, etc. and these are too numerous to include in a work of this nature. This list of references has been culled from Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, and the actual texts from the King James Version have been inserted in full after each reference to make comprehension easier. (This is not a short-cut to studying the verses in your own Bible for yourself, where the context will make the meaning clearer.)

Heads, Harps, Hierarchies, and Halos

There are many misconceptions regarding the subject of angels. Here we explore just a few.

Heads

One such text that causes confusion is 1 Corinthians 11:10, which in the King James Version reads, 'For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.' It is argued, by some, that the Angels give special powers to women and not to men. But a reading of this in its context shows that the writer is talking about a covering of the head. The Life Application Bible (New Living Translation) renders the text thus: 'So a woman should wear a covering on her head as a sign of authority because the angels are watching.'

Harps

Many painters and illustrators over the years have pictured angels playing harps. But is this biblical? Nowhere in scripture are the angels recorded as playing harps. Harp playing in the Old Testament is associated with worship and prophesying on earth and in the New Testament is associated with worship in Heaven by the four beasts, the twenty-four elders of Revelation 5, and the 'redeemed of the Lord' in Revelation 14.

Interestingly, in Isaiah, a prostitute (the symbol of the city) is told to play a harp! 'And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot. Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered' (Isa 23:15, 16 KJV).

Here follows the New Testament references to harp playing:

Revelation 5:8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

14:1,2 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. / And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

15:2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

Angels are able to play music, as Revelation 8:2 says, 'And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.' (Later verses then tell us that the trumpets were sounded.)

References to angels singing are equally difficult to find. Assuming he is talking about the angels at creation, Job says, 'the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy' (Job 38:7). Even the oft-quoted Luke 2:13 & 14 'And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.' was not sung according to this verse. The Greek word for 'saying' is lego means to break silence, or by implication to mean: ask, bid, boast, call, describe, give out, name, put forth, say, show, speak, tell, or utter. The same Greek word is used in Revelation 5:11, 12 'And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands / Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.' This doesn't mean they don't sing, it only means that these verses don't prove that they do.

Hierarchies

'Those who presume to dogmatise on the ranks and numbers of angels, would do well to consider on what foundation they rest.' - John Calvin, Institutes Of The Christian Religion Volume 1 (of 4)

A few scholars have suggested that as the term heavenly host (Greek stratia, Luke 2:13) means an army there must be an hierarchy in order for there to be order. Furthermore, references to archangels (1 Thessalonians 4:16; Jude 9) and a special class of angels that has intimate fellowship with God such as the seraphim of Isaiah 6:2-6, indicate to these scholars that angels are organised in a rigidly fixed system of rank.

Some writers have even attempted to list their ranks and duties.

Some have counted seven from Tobit 12:15; 4 and Ezra 5:20, four from Enoch 4; 87:2-3; 88:1 or three in Enoch 90:31. A certain writer earlier than

A.D. 500 who claimed to be Dionysius the Areopagite of Acts 17:34, later referred to by scholars as Pseudo-Dionysius, produced a nine-fold hierarchy of angels. Thomas Aquinas later adopted this ranking and the schema did not appear to be seriously challenged until the Protestant Reformation. According to Pseudo-Dionysius, in the Nine-fold Celestial Hierarchy the angels are arranged in three tiers (or ranks), each tier having three groups. The highest tier, consisting of Seraphim, Cherubim, and Thrones, is the closest to God. The second tier is made up of Dominions, Powers and Authorities. The lowest tier, which has direct contact with humankind, is made up of Principalities, Archangels and Angels.

However, I have found that the ranks labelled Dominions, Powers, and Principalities are not clearly identified in the Bible as angels. Cherubim and Archangels are never compared to one another in terms of rank, and nowhere does the Bible suggest that the 'better' angels commune with God and 'lesser' angels minister to humanity -quite the contrary - God Himself is directly involved with humanity.

Celestial Hierarchy

The term Archangel (Greek archaggelos - chief angel) can mean the chief above the angels, and therefore when the Bible speaks of an archangel, it may not necessarily be referring to an angel at all. The archangels mentioned in the Bible and the Apocrypha are Michael 'who (is) like God?' (Dan. 10:13; 12:1; Enoch 9:1; 10:11), Gabriel 'hero of God' (Dan. 8:16, 9:21; Enoch 9:1; 20:7; 40:9 Luke 1:19, 26), Raphael 'God has healed' (Tobit 3:17; 12:15; Enoch 10:4; 40:9) and Uriel 'Flame of God' (Enoch 9:1; 19:1; 20:2).

Seraphim (plural - Seraph singular) means the burning ones. Isaiah in vision, saw the seraphim as winged agents of God in Isaiah 6:2. They were well known in Egyptian culture and the images of these winged serpents, wearing the crowns of the Egyptian kings, decorated many Egyptian pharaohs' thrones. As they were thought to act as guardians over the king, Israel adopted the same imagery during the inter-Testament period as symbolic of God's throne.

Cherubim (plural - Cherub singular) is an Hebrew word meaning (possibly) winged angels, although the original meaning is quite obscure. Mentioned in Genesis 3:24, Ezekiel 10:3-22 and Hebrews 9:5, they apparently reflect the symbolism of the Temple and God's presence. (See also Exodus 25:18-22; 1 Kings 6:23-35; 2 Chronicles 3:7-14)

Halos

According to the Concise Oxford Dictionary, a halo is either a disc or circle of light shown surrounding the head of a sacred person, the glory associated with an idealised person etc., a circle of white or coloured light round a luminous body, esp. the sun or moon, or simply a circle or ring. It is from the Medieval Latin via Latin from the Greek halos, meaning 'threshing floor', or 'disc of the sun or moon'. It is most likely that the halos we see in religious paintings, frescos, and statues are merely copies of Greek secular statues, which had halos around the brow to prevent pigeons desecrating the face. (Spike Milligan made reference to this in his two-line poem Nelson's Hat: 'Tis due to pigeons that alight / On Nelson's hat that makes it white!'). Visible bands of light around holy heads is not biblical.

lowest order of the nine-fold celestial hierarchy - any of the nine grades of angelic beings (seraphim, cherubim, thrones, dominations, principalities, powers, virtues, archangels, angels). From the Old English engel or Old French angele, via ecclesiastical Latin angelus from Greek aggelos 'messenger' -

ANGEL: (According to Strong's Concordance)

Angel: (Hebrew: 4397.) mal'ak, Pronounced mal-awk'; from an unused root meaning to despatch as a deputy; a messenger; specifically of God, i.e. an angel (also a prophet, priest or teacher):—ambassador, angel, king, messenger. - Strong's Concordance

Angel: (Greek: 32.) aggelos, Pronounced ang'-el-os; from aggello, probably derived from ago, ag'-o; a prim. verb; prop. to lead; by implication to bring, drive, (reflex.) go, (spec.) pass (time), or (fig.) induce:—be, bring (forth), carry, (let) go, keep, lead away, be open; compare agele, ag-el'-ay; from ago; a drove:—herd. (to bring tidings); a messenger; especially an 'angel'; by implication a pastor:—angel, messenger.
