Subject: Peer-to-peer review – The Lure and Cure of Porn

Lionel,

Thank you for sending the video and text transcript of your seminar/workshop "The Lure and Cure of Porn" for peer review as requested.

Excellent stuff!

The section "Been there, Done that – Trapped" has some very practical case studies, although you may wish to include a section on homosexuality (unless you promote your seminar "Homosexuality" which covers that aspect brilliantly.)

The section on Porn Avoidance is the most practical I have ever read, and ought to be included in every seminary course.

Once again, I cannot fault your presentation style and your honest and practical answers to the participant's challenging questions.

You are not afraid to tackle difficult issues head on and re-package them in practical and profound wisdom.

I have shared some of your "Cure of Porn" content with A [REDACTED] and F [REDACTED]; who are both having struggles in this area. A [REDACTED]'s wife also saw the video and wept tears of joy as she could see how practical, non-condemnatory and realistic your strategies are and how they could be implemented in their home.

Once again, well done!

Arthur.
