- Judged by the Gospel Robert D. Brinsmead $29.95

383 pp. (photocopied-due to book being out of print). It is not enough to confess that the bible is true. Many sects and cults do that. We need to confess that the Gospel of Christ is the truth of the Bible. Every other truth must be seen as a refraction of this one central truth. Every confusion over doctrine stems from confusion about the Gospel. Sound religious faith therefore, presupposes a correct understanding of the Gospel. Every aspect of our faith must stand under the judgement of the Gospel. We dare not shape and compromise the Gospel to fit our traditions. Rather, our traditions must be squared and shaped by the clear light of the Gospel.

1JG0001

1ND0001

- Passion Week: Portrait of the End of the World Des Ford $5.00

21 pp booklet. The most important week of history was the one climaxing in the Cross. It is known as Passion Week ("passion" means suffering here). Only 42 days of our Lord's life are referred to in the Gospels—one day out of every 350. Yet, with the last seven days, one-third to one-half of the Gospel record is devoted to Passion Week. These days are primarily important because they demonstrate that the suffering God is at the heart of Christianity—the God who loved us and gave himself for us. But, second, the week is important because it prefigures the last events of earth's history.

These references are the keys with which we may unlock the Apocalypse. Prominent in its forecasts are allusions to Jezebel and Elijah. Most have heard of the world's last conflict called Armageddon. But few realise that Armageddon cannot be understood without studying its Old Testament source—the histories of Ahab, Jezebel, Elijah at Mount Carmel, and the destruction of idolaters in the Kishon Valley (at Megiddo, which is the Hebrew root name for the Greek word Armageddon).

1SI0001

- The Theological Dilemma: Relationship between Law and Grace Des Ford $3.50

10 pp. booklet. So the New Testament takes it for granted that Christians are aware of law, are aware of the right way, but fall short of it to their constant chagrin, pain and penitence Then there is the matter of grace. You don't really have to preach a lot about law because everybody knows something about law. A murderer knows he ought not, a thief knows he ought not, an embezzler knows he ought not, and the adulterer knows he ought not. But you do have to preach about grace because we don't know grace naturally. Grace is a surprising revelation. This book is one of those books that is born out of adversity and controversy. The catalyst for it centres around the increasing criticism and accusations that have been levelled at Ellen G. White and her writings by those intent on destroying her credibility as an inspired writer and one through whom the gift of prophecy was manifest. Much has been published, circulated via videos and promulgated on the Internet with this objective in mind.
