

The Rules of This Kitchen

- 1) The Housewife always makes the rules.
- 2) The rules are subject to change at any time without prior notification.
- 3) These are not all the rules, because no male in this house can possibly know all the rules except those written here.
- 4) If the Housewife suspects that any male knows all the rules, she must immediately change some or all of the rules.
- 5) The Housewife is never wrong.
- 6) If the Housewife is wrong, it is because of a flagrant misunderstanding which was a direct result of something one of the male members of this household did or said wrong.
- 7) If Rule 6 applies, the suspected male must apologise immediately for causing the misunderstanding.
- 8) The Housewife can change her mind at any given point in time.
- 9) No male in this kitchen must ever change his mind without express written consent from the Housewife.
- 10) The Housewife has every right to be angry or upset at any time.
- 11) The men folk must remain calm at all times, unless the Housewife wants them to be angry or upset.
- 12) The Housewife must under no circumstances let any male know whether or not she wants him to be angry or upset.
- 13) Any attempt to modify these rules could result in unexplainable consequences.
- 14) If the Housewife has funny mood, all written rules become null and void and a new list of unwritten rules apply.
